

Peninsula Dressage Club will be holding its sixteenth annual dressage show to benefit Women Supporting Women, a grassroots organization here on Delmarva that provides FREE services and support to all those affected by breast cancer.

The benefit show will be held on September 21st at WinAway Farm in Willards, MD. Riders of all levels and all types of dressage are invited to participate. Traditionally horses and riders wear pink to show their support, making for a very special horse show experience.
